Savoy Lounge - Elizabeth, N.J. - Queenie Popeye was more than a Queen for a night. Her Birthday was way out there and everybody had a swinging time. Folks on the set were Debbie and Edison, Shirley Singleton and Bo, Miller, Black Gold, Chet, Evelyn, Brown Sugar, Jessie plus Belma and La Vern. . . Boy, they are still talking about Delores and her sisters at the Purple Mushroom in Jersey City, New Jersey. . . Ruby Pearls - Sweet Rose sure got this place going and everybody trips in to keep her company. . . To the folks who have been calling in the office asking about their pictures - please - we have only so much room, but we try to keep publishing photos every week. . . Note: We of the After Hour News Staff still want to send our expressions of sympathy to Mr. Noah W. Marshall's family. Mr. Marshall was a friend to many people in this city and some of us learned about his passing too late to send flowers. . . Jimmy Scott, Jimmy Scott the man with the voice of tomorrow will be recording after his Easter Monday date in the East then off to a European date. . . They say Preacher Wells has been blowing some big bucks in Las Vegas. . . Pearson Lounge - the new staff of Latrica, Dorthy, Ladie Francis, Gale, Joyce, Ronnie and the reliable manager Al Butler. . . Sarah Vaughn is moving her Mom and family to California and selling her Newark Real Estate.

REGGIE

by Bernard Gold

When Reggie takes his seat, the fox is sitting next to him. "I'm Reggie". "I know I asked Rochelle". "Well-and your name?" "It's Joyce", she replies. "Joyce", Reggie repeats. "I like that name. And you know I'm going to tell you something you don't realize yet. You and I are going to get along great!" "We are", asks a smiling Joyce? Looking at her body obviously up and down, Reggie replies, "Oh yeah! oh hell yeah"! At this Joyce laughs lightly. She's fast warming up to Reggie's charm. "You're something else Reggie." "On the contrary I'm otherwise".

Joyce speaks, "You are really too much". "Not really baby", replies Reggie, "In fact I'm not enough but I'm tending toward-if you can dig where I'm coming from"? "I think I

TRAVEL NEWS & VIEWS

By Lorraine Bradford

The Travel Agent

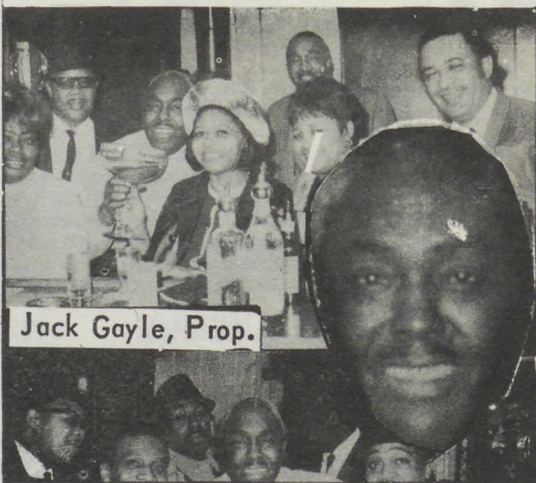

Your travel agent is one of the most valuable resources for service you'll find. Just what does the travel agent do? A good travel agent handles every aspect of your travel plans. Not quite sure of the destination? Discuss various vacation areas with your agent and from first hand experience he'll help you select the perfect spot. Champagne tastes with beer money, don't forget that some of the greatest journeys have been made on a 'shoe string.' Contrary to opinion, one of a good agent's prime concerns is his client's budget and he'll do all possible to get you the best for the least. How much does the travel agent charge — NOTHING — Airlines, Hotels, etc. pay us to do their bookings and at no additional cost to you. But you can benefit from the many years of travel experience and information available to the travel agent. Address any inquiries to: Mrs. Lorraine Bradford, Bradford Travel Association

WALTER DAWKINS A Giant Who Has Passed

By Geronimo

With the passing of Walter Dawkins, owner of the well known Key Club I would like to tell all who have only known him a short time what Mr. Dawkins did for the people in Show Business and for his customers over the past sixteen years. Walter presented some of the finest entertainment Newark has ever known.

Ernest Scott organist and singer and myself worked for Walter for two years. But before we came King Solomon and Rose, Gus Young, and Duckey Massey Freddy Roach and Eddie Wright was there. Rhoda Scott, Bill Elliott and Joe Thomas came after Scotty and I left and they stayed there until the club moved to its present location on William Street. Artist who have gone to greater things such as Jack McDuff, Betty Carter, Yusef Lateef, Dave Burns could always find a job for Walter would make one for them somehow. Charley Langston one of Walter's longtime friends and Richard Nolee was working with us way back then and can tell you about some of the truly great nights of entertainment put on by the late Great Willie Lewis. How Jackie Verdell, who had never sang on stage before thrilled us. How Walter, Nate Brown and Richard Nolee, all would do their thing for hours on singing one song after another and telling jokes. For me it was one of the happier period of my life. I shall always remember those days and those persons mainly Walter Dawkins kindly.

Also Walter has passed and I would like to see the Key Club keep on going for Walter gave so much of his life to make it what it is today! People from all over the country knew about the Key Club, in fact it was the top club in our Area barring none.

I hope that those of you who did know him will remember him from happier days and always think of those days and Walter fondly. (God Bless You Walter Dawkins).

Geronimo Jazz RoundUp

For all of you who didn't know one of Jersey's finest piano players passed a couple weeks ago - DANNY MOBLEY. His nephew HANK MOBLEY was working in Chi town with Philly JOE JONES at the time and was unaware until I broke the news to him this pass week.

We here at AFTER HOURS would like to welcome home one of the finest drummer to have ever made the scene from Newark, CHINK WILLIAMS.

CHINK is forming a all new small Combo, which I know will be great. . . MICKEY TUCKER another one of our home boys has a new album out that features drummer EDDY GLADEN that is out of sight.

Since the Jersey Super Soul Productions Office has been open, I have seen a lot of young new talent, but what has happened to some of the oldier, finer talents I know is still around. Our office is open to all. Call MA 3-7801.
